- b) The normal daily period of duty (including the period for refreshment referred to (in sub-paragraph (c)) of a member shall, except in the case of a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, be 8 hours.
- c) As far as the exigencies of duty permit:
 - i) The normal daily period of duty (or, in the case of a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, a shift) shall be performed in one tour of duty; and
 - ii) Apart from where a member has taken a half day's annual leave or is working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, an interval of 45 minutes shall be allowed for refreshment.
 - iii) Where in one day a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements is on duty for a continuous period of 5 hours or more, time for refreshment shall, as far as the exigencies of duty permit, be allowed as in the following table:

Number of hours	Refreshment time
Less than 6 hours	30 minutes
6 hours or more, but less than 7 hours	35 minutes
7 hours or more, but less than 8 hours	40 minutes
8 hours or more, but less than 9 hours	45 minutes
9 hours or more, but less than 10 hours	50 minutes
10 hours or more	60 minutes

- d) Where a member is required to perform his normal daily period of duty (or in the case of a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, a shift) in more than one tour of duty and does not travel to and from his home between tours, an interval for refreshment and rest shall normally be included at the beginning or end of one of those tours.

2) VARIABLE SHIFT ARRANGEMENTS

- a) A chief officer may, after consulting with the joint branch board and the members affected, allowing them at least 30 days to make representations and taking account of the likely effects of the new arrangements on their personal circumstances:
 - i) announce that he intends to bring into operation variable shift arrangements for all or any particular class of members below the rank of inspector (below the rank of superintendent for part-time members); and

- ii) bring the arrangements into operation not less than 30 days after the announcement.
- b) Variable shift arrangements must provide, for full-time members for whom they are in operation:
 - i) for hours of duty equivalent to those of a member with a normal daily period of duty of 8 hours (including a period for refreshment) and who receives a day's leave on each public holiday and 2 rest days per week; and
 - ii) for annual leave equivalent to that granted in accordance with regulation 33 and the Secretary of State's determination of the annual leave of members of police forces thereunder.
- c) Variable shift arrangements must provide, for part-time members for whom they are in operation:
 - i) a normal period of duty in every relevant period as in paragraph (6) below; and
 - ii) for annual leave equivalent to that granted in accordance with regulation 33 and the Secretary of State's determination of the annual leave of members of police forces thereunder.

3) DUTY ROSTERS

- a) A chief officer shall cause to be published, in accordance with this determination, duty rosters for members of his force of the rank of constable or sergeant (and inspector and chief inspector in the case of part-time members) and, in the determinations made under the Police Regulations 2003:
 - i) a reference to a rostered rest day is to be construed, in relation to a member of a police force who is required to do duty on that day, as a reference to a day which according to the duty roster was, immediately before he was so required to do duty, to have been a rest day for the member; and
 - ii) a day off granted in lieu of a rostered rest day shall be treated as a rostered rest day.
- b) A chief officer shall cause each such roster to be drawn up and published, after full consultation with the Joint Branch Board, at intervals not exceeding 12 months and not later than one month before the date on which it starts.
- c) Each such roster shall set out, for at least three months (except one relating to a part-time member who has agreed with the chief officer on a different period) following the date on which it comes into force, in relation to each member of the force to which it relates:
 - i) his rest days;
 - ii) those days, being public holidays, on which he may be required to do duty; and

- iii) the times at which his scheduled daily periods of duty (rostered shifts for members working variable shift arrangements and for part-time members) are to begin and end; and
 - iv) for part-time members, his free days.
- d) A reference to a 'free day' is to be construed as a reference to a day which is not:
- i) a day on which, according to the duty roster, a shift is to begin or end;
 - ii) a rostered rest day; or
 - iii) a public holiday.
- e) Subject to paragraph (f), a duty roster shall make provision for:
- i) an interval of not less than 11 hours between the ending of each of a member's daily periods of duty (or in the case of a part-time member or a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, his shifts) and the beginning of the next; and
 - ii) an interval between each of his rostered rest days not exceeding 7 days, unless in the case of a part-time member, a longer interval has been agreed between the member and the chief officer;
- unless the Joint Branch Board agrees otherwise, such agreement providing for an equivalent period of compensatory rest.
- f) Where, owing to the exigencies of duty, it is necessary to alter a duty roster, the officer responsible for making the alteration shall endeavour, so far as practicable, to avoid thereby requiring a member to do an additional daily period of duty or, in the case of a part-time member or a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, a shift, in circumstances where the conditions in sub-paragraph (e)(i) and (ii) would not be satisfied in relation thereto.
- g) Where a duty roster is altered in accordance with subparagraph f) and a member is required to do an additional daily period of duty or a shift in circumstances where the conditions in sub-paragraph (e)(i) and (ii) are not satisfied in relation thereto, that member shall be entitled to an equivalent period of compensatory rest.

4) PUBLIC HOLIDAYS, REST DAYS AND MONTHLY LEAVE DAYS

- a) Constables and Sergeants
 - i) So far as the exigencies of duty permit, a member of a police force of the rank of constable or sergeant shall be allowed a day's leave on each public holiday and be granted rest days at the rate of two rest days (or, in the case of a member working in accordance with variable shift arrangements, not less than two rest days) in respect of each week.

and travels to and from his home between tours (in the case of a member working variable shift arrangements, between shifts), or as the case may be, in consequence of his recall, (in this determination referred to as "relevant travelling").

b) This paragraph applies to a part-time member where:

- i) a shift consists of two separate periods; or
- ii) he is recalled to duty between two shifts;

and he travels to and from his home between those periods or, as the case may be, in consequence of his recall, (in this determination referred to as "relevant travelling").

c) In computing any period of overtime for the purposes of regulation 25 and the determination thereunder or any period of duty for the purpose of regulation 26 and the determination thereunder (save for the purposes of sub-paragraph 3(g) of the determination thereunder) the time occupied by such a member in relevant travelling, not exceeding such reasonable limit as may be fixed by the chief officer of police, shall be treated as a period of duty.

 - (1) any number of hours different from that determined under sub-paragraph (ii) which was determined by the chief officer and agreed to by the member becomes the member's normal period of duty, and

- b) For the purposes of this paragraph, in relation to a part-time member of a police force:
- i) the determined hours are the number of hours which the chief officer has determined as his normal period of duty in a relevant period,

- ii) a relevant period is a period for which a duty roster relating to him has effect for the time being under paragraph 3 , and
 - iii) the appropriate factor is A/B , where
 - A is the number of determined hours, and
 - B is 40 times the number of weeks in the relevant period.
 - c) In relation to a member of a police force in a job share arrangement the appropriate factor is $\frac{1}{2}$.
- 7) a) In this determination and determinations made under regulations 25 and 33, "day", in relation to members of a police force, means a period of 24 hours commencing at such time or times as the chief officer shall fix and the chief officer may fix different times in relation to different groups of members.
- b) In discharging his functions under sub paragraph (a) above, the chief officer shall have regard to the wishes of the joint branch board.

Between 2 October 1999 and 30 September 2000:	change to 1 October from 2004

Post 2 October 2000: no change

Any member with a 1st October start date does not change. The above changes to incremental dates will need to remain in place until members reach the top of the constables' scale, in order to avoid yet further anomalies arising.

CONSTABLES' PAY SCALE – ASSIMILATION PROCEDURE

1. The former constables' pay scale of fifteen points has been reduced by four points over two years from April 2003.
2. With effect from 1 April 2003 two points were removed, namely, the former 8 and 10 years' service points, to create a new 13-point pay scale.
3. With effect from 1 April 2004, the 3 years' service point on the constables' scale was removed, to create a new 12-point pay scale.
4. With effect from 1 April 2005 the 9 years' service point as at 31 March 2004 has been removed to create a new 11-point pay scale, the top point of which will be reached in ten years.
5. With effect from 1 April 2005, members who were on the former 9 years service point should be placed on the new 9 years service point and those on the former 10 years service point should be placed on the new 10 years service point. Members on the former 11 years service point should be placed on the new 10 years service point.

Anomalies

6. Anomalies will arise with this assimilation method whereby some officers will be overtaken in the pay scales by other officers recruited up to a year later, due to the inter-relationship between individuals' incremental dates and the effective dates of implementation of the new pay scales.
7. To counteract these anomalies arising from both assimilation to the above new pay scale, and that implemented with effect from 1 April 2003, the following changes to certain members' incremental dates will apply. The incremental dates of members listed below will, for pay purposes only, change in accordance with the following table:

Officer's start date	Incremental date
Pre-1 October 1991	no change
Between 2 October 1991 and 30 September 1992:	change to 1 October from 2003
Between 2 October 1992 and 30 September 1993:	no change
Between 2 October 1993 and 30 September 1994:	change to 1 October from 2003
Between 2 October 1994 and 30 September 1999:	no change
Between 2 October 1999 and 30 September 2000:	change to 1 October from 2004
Post-2 October 2000:	no change

8. A member with a 1st October start date does not change. The above changes to incremental dates will need to remain in place until members reach the top of the constables' scale, in order to avoid yet further anomalies arising.
9. All other members move on to the next point in the scale in accordance with their normal incremental dates.

Anomalies

To counteract these anomalies arising from assimilation onto the new pay scale implemented with effect from 1 April 2003, the incremental dates of members listed below were for pay purposes only, changed as indicated below:

Entry date to rank	Incremental date
Pre-1 October 2001	No change
Between 2 October 2001	Changed to 1 October 2003
and 30 September 2002:	no change
Post-2 October 2002

These changes to remain in place until members reached the top of the sergeants' scale.

Anomalies did not in fact arise for those members promoted to the rank between 2 October 2001 and 30 September 2002 who had 12 or more years' reckonable service as a constable. Therefore, such members promoted to the rank between 1 April 2002 and 30 September 2002 shall, with retrospective effect, have their previous increment dates reinstated.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the scales will be according to the individual's PDR rating. Those rated as competent will receive one increment. Those rated as exceptional will receive a double increment. Those rated as not yet competent will receive no increment.

Those on the penultimate point of their scale who are rated as exceptional will receive a one-off non-pensionable payment equivalent to the second increment in addition to proceeding to the top of the pay scale. This payment will be paid as a single lump sum.

Incremental progression and the award of non-pensionable payments under the preceding paragraphs is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows. Those paragraphs continue to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any increment or payment being awarded by that date.

Protected pay arrangements with effect from 1 January 2002 for superintendents appointed to range 2 posts prior to 1st January 2002 and not promoted to Chief Superintendent are set out at Part 6(ii).

Central Service Posts

Those members of temporary Chief Superintendent rank on central service prior to 1st September 1994, and still on central service after that date should, in common with those appointed onto central service from 1st September 1994, suffer no worsening in their pay when they return to their parent force.

Performance-related Bonus

Those who have been at the top of their pay scale for at least twelve months will be eligible for a performance-related bonus, if they are rated as exceptional performers in their PDR. This bonus will amount to 5% of pensionable pay at the time of the performance review. It will be non-pensionable. It will be paid as a single lump sum.

The award of performance-related bonuses under the preceding paragraph is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows:

- a) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any bonus being awarded by that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to the full bonus under the preceding paragraph.
- b) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year beginning before 1 April 2012 and ending after that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to a sum calculated by multiplying the full bonus under the preceding paragraph by $N/12$, where N is the number of full months in the period beginning with the start of the reporting year and ending on 31 March 2012.

Incremental Progression

Incremental progression through the scales will be according to the individual's PDR rating. Those rated as competent will receive one increment. Those rated as exceptional will receive a double increment. Those rated as not yet competent will receive no increment.

Those on the penultimate point of their scale who are rated as exceptional will receive a one-off non-pensionable payment equivalent to the second increment in addition to proceeding to the top of the pay scale. This payment will be paid as a single lump sum.

Incremental progression and the award of non-pensionable payments under the preceding paragraphs is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows. Those paragraphs continue to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any increment or payment being awarded by that date.

Central Service Posts

Those members of temporary Chief Superintendent rank on central service prior to 1st September 1994, and still on central service after that date should, in common with those appointed onto central service from 1st September 1994, suffer no worsening in their pay when they return to their parent force.

Performance-related Bonus

Those who have been at the top of their pay scale for at least twelve months will be eligible for a performance-related bonus, if they are rated as exceptional performers in their PDR. This bonus will amount to 5% of pensionable pay at the time of the performance review. It will be non-pensionable. It will be paid as a single lump sum.

Former Superintendent Range 2s not promoted to Chief Superintendent, who have been at the maximum of the protected scale for at least twelve months, will also be eligible for this payment

The award of performance-related bonuses under the preceding paragraph is suspended in the period from 1 April 2012 to 31 March 2014, save as follows:

- a) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year ending before 1 April 2012 which has not yet resulted in any bonus being awarded by that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to the full bonus under the preceding paragraph.
- b) That paragraph continues to apply in relation to a PDR rating awarded in respect of a reporting year beginning before 1 April 2012 and ending after that date. In this circumstance the member will be entitled to a sum calculated by multiplying the full bonus under the preceding paragraph by $N/12$, where N is the number of full months in the period beginning with the start of the reporting year and ending on 31 March 2012.

 - ii) if he was so recalled to duty for 3 or more days (whether or not forming a single period), 2 days' annual leave (or, if the member so choose, 1 day's annual leave and 1 day's pay at double time) in lieu of each of the first 2

- c) The payment due under sub-paragraph (b) shall be a sum equal to the amount that would be due to the member in respect of a period of leave determined according to the formula $(A \times B) - C$ where
- A is the period of leave to which the member is entitled under this determination;
- B is the proportion of the member's leave year which expired before the termination date, and

As the result of such a review, the chief officer may require the member to return to duty, after a minimum notice period of one month, provided that if the chief officer is minded to require the member to return to duty he will allow the member to make appropriate representations before he reaches a final decision.
